

Young Workers/Women's/Human Rights Committees Featured on GoIAM.org!!

10/26/2017

Did you know that Victory Lodge 1725's Women's, Human Rights and Young Workers Committees are currently featured in an article on the official website of the IAM? That's right... members of our lodge are getting national attention for the work they are doing, often behind the scenes, to server our members and the community at large.

Please take a moment and go to the link below to read the article on GoIAM.org .. and when you see members of the Women's, Human Rights and Young Workers Committees around your workplace please tell them how much you appreciate all their hard work!!
